

HYDRAULIC POST PULLER/HIGHWAY GUARDRAIL PILE PULLER

Guardrail pile extractor is a device use for quickly pulling up guardrail and the subsequent repair work after car accident, consist of guide rail, hydraulic system, remote control system, suspension arm and pulling system five major components. This device has unique design, recognised by many highway administration and put into use.

- Design of wireless remote control, easy to operate, simple and quick
- Can be installed on any device with an open trunk road to repair the car
- Orbital glide and excavator telescopic boom to facilitate moving around
- High efficiency hydraulic system with more powerful engine, easy to pull up a variety of fence
- The pulling method of clamp is safe and effective, superior to various unsecured chain cable pulling machine

